

WNBF UK BODYBUILDING JUDGING CRITERIA

COMPETITION FORMATS AND COMPETITION ATTIRE

Competitions may take place as either a “Run Through” (Athletes appear on stage once and all rounds are judged) or “Prejudge and Evening Round” (Athletes appear on stage twice and are judged on two separate occasions; morning and evening). Athletes should follow the competition attire rules dependent on the show format.

PREJUDGING

Where rounds 1 & 2 take place. Bodybuilding Posing Trunks (Posing trunks must be black. No patterns allowed must be black. Posing trunks should cover $\frac{3}{4}$ of the glutes)

AFTERNOON/ EVENING SHOW AND RUN THROUGH FORMAT

Where round 3 takes place. Bodybuilding Posing trunks of choice.

WHILE ON STAGE

Athletes should listen to the commands of the head judge. The head judge will ask for call outs and poses specified in the division criteria. Athletes should familiarise themselves with their number as this is how the judges will identify you. Unsporting behaviour such as elbow butting, and pushing is frowned upon and may be cautioned by the head judge. Crass behaviour such as pulling your trunks aside to expose your glutes may also be cautioned. Failure to comply with the rules and guidance from the head judge may result in an athlete losing points from their scorecard.

ROUNDS JUDGED

All points in Round 1,2 and 3 (symmetry, muscularity and free posing rounds) contribute to the bodybuilding score. The Mr Golden Era round is judged separately and should be considered a separate competition to the aforementioned bodybuilding rounds.

Round #1 – SYMMETRY

Symmetry encompasses overall balance and proportions of the physique from top to bottom. The overall aesthetic of the physique is considered here including the presentation of the athlete. Athletes will execute the 4 quarter turns. Excessive twisting/flexing/posing in this round may be addressed by the head judge.

Front Relaxed

1. Quarter to the right showing the left side of the body
2. Quarter to the right showing the rear
3. Quarter turn to the right showing the right side of the body
4. Quarter turn to face the front

Front Relaxed

Round #2 - MUSCULARITY/CONDITIONING

The athlete's muscle mass and conditioning/definition will be judged in this round. Proportions and balance in the muscularity poses are considered. Conditioning encompasses the appearance of low body fat levels across the physique.

Athletes will execute a series of eight mandatory poses. Competitors must perform all mandatory poses in a timely manner. Judges are looking at the complete package from all parts of the physique, not just one body part at a time. Athletes will perform only the poses requested by the Head Judge.

MANDATORY POSES: As follows in this order

1. Front Double Biceps Pose
2. Front Lat Spread Pose
3. Side Chest Pose
4. Side Triceps Pose (both hands behind the back)

5. Rear Double Biceps Pose (showing one calf)
6. Rear Lat Spread Pose (showing one calf)
7. Abs and Thigh Pose (both arms overhead, flexing down on the abdominals)
8. Muscular Pose called by the head judge (Hands On Hips, Crab, etc)

Round 3 - FREE POSING

All competitors will perform a 60 second ONLY posing routine to a piece of music of their choice following their comparison rounds. Props and costumes are permitted but not required.

Posing Routine Music specifications

Posing music must be submitted to the contest promoter please see website for information. This needs to be in MP3 format. The first minute will be played, but we advise you leave your file 10 seconds or so longer than this so that we can fade it out for you. Any athlete who has not submitted music by the deadline will pose to music of the promoter DJ's choice. Posing music MUST NOT contain any profanity, sexually explicit, or violent lyrics or racially offensive terminology. Such tracks will not be played.

All points in Round 1,2 and 3 (symmetry, muscularity and free posing rounds) contribute to the bodybuilding score. The Mr Golden Era round is judged separately and should be considered a separate competition to the aforementioned bodybuilding rounds.

Mr Golden Era Round

Athletes will be judged using a series of four classic poses of the athletes choice. Poses must be performed standing, and can not be the same as any of the 8 mandatory poses from the prior muscularity round:

1. Favourite classic pose of choice from the front
2. Favorite classic pose showing the left side
3. Favourite classic pose from the rear
4. Favourite classic pose showing the right side.

The best athlete from each class will be selected to compete for the overall Mr Golden Era competition. The judges will select the athlete based on aesthetics, presentation and who they believe represents the Golden Era ideal.
